Procedures for Submitting Presentation Abstracts

1. Abstract Submissions — Abstracts may be submitted to up to two groups (working group, distributed working group, focus group). You must make two separate complete submissions so that your submission may be considered by each group separately.
2. Abstracts — All abstracts (limit 3000 characters, including spaces; plain text only—no bullets, footnotes, or any other special formatting) should be submitted through the MORS "Presenter Center" site at https://info.mors.org/events/presenter-center. Once you are on the site, please follow the instructions provided. The abstract disclosure process will be included online during your abstract submission. The abstract MUST be Unclassified and Approved for Public Release, Distribution Unlimited.
3. Notification — If you are not notified of acceptance or rejection of abstracts offered for presentation at the 95th MORSS by 19 March, 2027, please contact Jill Maita at jill.maita@mors.org.
