KIM BULLIVANT

Kim has dedicated her career to improving government and procurement with nearly six years of experience as an Internal Communications Manager for the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) and over seven years of experience as the Marketing Manager for the COSTARS Program at the Pennsylvania Department of General Services. The COSTARS cooperative purchasing program has grown rapidly during Kim's tenure and has helped local government's across the Commonwealth to operate more efficiently, effectively, and safely.