FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists (ACAMS) Augments Advisory Board with AML Community Bank Expert

Anna joins the board of 15 international AML officials who possess an expertise in the various areas of anti-money laundering and financial crime prevention. The ACAMS Advisory Board provides strategic counsel for our anti-money laundering and related training curriculum as well as guides our reaction to major policy issues affecting the AML community.

John J. Byrne, CAMS, Executive Vice President at ACAMS, noted, “Anna is a tremendous addition to the ACAMS Advisory Board. She has been an active and engaged member of the ACAMS community for years and has provided a strong point of view for community bank challenges as evidenced by an impressive career at Central Bancompany. I look forward to her input and fresh ideas as we prepare for the next series of issues sure to impact our membership.”

Anna is the Vice President and BSA Officer for Central Bancompany, a $10 billion holding company in Missouri and Oklahoma with branches in Kansas and Illinois. Anna has been involved with Central Bancompany for 31 years and was awarded the American Bankers Association’s “ABA Distinguished Service Award in 2008.”

According to Byrne, “Anna’s three decades in the AML and financial crime prevention community gives her a unique perspective on critical issues that we face every day. I know that her experience will make her a strong leader to steer the course for ACAMS.”
