

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE
OF ARCHITECTS
Committee on Architecture for Education

JULY 29 – 31
Sheraton Boston Hotel

Boston Society of Architects Space
Boston, MA

Design Thinking Shaping Educational Environments

In a complex 24/7 wired world, how do we create learning experiences that are engaging, stimulating and inspire creativity?

EXPLORE | DIALOGUE | RUMINATE

Join your colleagues and peers at the 2013 AIA CAE Summer Conference, held in conjunction with CEFPI (Council for Educational Facilities Planners International).

MONDAY, JULY 29, 2013

Field Trips

See the application of Design Thinking in Education in real life situations when we visit the following sites:

- Quincy High School

Panel Discussion

Teaching and Learning through Design

Bill McIlroy, Claire Gallagher, Nadine Gerds, Cara Armstrong

- Milton Academy Pritzker Science Center
- Boston Public Library, Mattapan Branch
- Northeastern University Digital Media Commons

Opening Reception

Boston Architectural College (BAC)

TUESDAY, JULY 30, 2013

Keynote

Thomas D. Albright, Professor and Director, Vision Center Laboratory
Perception of Motion, Form and Color in Learning Environments

Interactive Sessions Include:

- FLEXspace: Flexible Learning Environment eXchange Production Migration
- Not Old School: Architecture in Support of Learning
- Spaces and Learning
- Handling Hands-On: Retrofitting Technical Learning Environments to Optimize Project-Based Learning
- Collaboration and Cooperation: New Learning Environments to Support Student Success
- Side by Side: Arts Education and Community
- Pre-K Through Grade 1 Classroom Design After the Newtown Massacre
- How Qualitative and Quantitative Trends Can Shape Your Learning Environments
- Challenges in Designing and Supporting Collaborative Classrooms
- How College Dialogue Leads to Creating an Engaging Place
- Networking Reception Boston Society of Architects (BSA)

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 2013

Keynote

Dr. Tony Wagner, Innovation Education Fellow at the Technology & Entrepreneurship Center, Harvard University

Panel Discussion

Design Thinking and Learning Environments

John Dale, Thomas D. Albright, Dutch MacDonald, Kent Larson and Nader Tehrani

Field Trips

See the application of Design Thinking in Education in real life situations when we visit the following sites:

- MIT Media Lab
- Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum (Architectural Tour)
- Museum of Fine Arts (Architectural Tour)

Register Today at www.cefpi.org