New Password Required

AUPHA has transitioned to a new Customer Management System.

If this is your first time logging in the new system, please select the "Forgot Password?" link on the left. You will be directed to type in your email address. Please use the email address you use for the AUPHA Network. You will then receive an email that will direct you to create a new password. Please be aware that AUPHA will no longer store your password. If you forget your password in the future, you will use the same process to reset your password.

Please contact Chris Sanyer, Director of Membership, if you have any questions.
