

2010 Global Sustainability Community

Sponsorship Opportunity

CoreNet Global's Sustainability Community invites you to support our efforts and reap the benefits of exposure to this active segment of our industry. Collaborate with us, share critical knowledge, discover solutions to common problems and grow your business. For more details regarding the purpose and future of Sustainability globally, please visit the CoreNet Global Sustainability Community web site at <http://sustainabilitycommunity.corenetglobal.org/CORENETGLOBAL/SustainabilityCommunity/Home/>

Through sponsorship of the Sustainability Community you can network with the innovators and thought leaders while gaining insight into what members think on current issues, challenges they face, and how they approach their work. Benefit from this targeted market and your ability to interface directly with the community's members and leaders, showcase your products and promote your organization.

Become an annual sponsor now and benefit from year-round high profile exposure and branding.

Communities of Practice allow CoreNet Global members to work together on common areas of interest and tap into the distributed intelligence of the corporate real estate community. CoreNet Global Communities enable members to network, exchange ideas and best practices, solve problems, and gain access to expertise and innovative strategies for the strategic management of their organizations.
