The Theme of the Conference

The 2012 National Evaluation Institute (NEI) is the 21st annual conference of CREATE (The Consortium for Research on Educational Accountability and Teacher Evaluation). This year's theme focuses on the practical solutions to the challenges K-12 practitioners face with the shift to national standards and the implementation of new models for accountability.

Presenter Demographics

Presenters at the National Evaluation Institute are educational researchers, practitioners in the field, and advanced graduate students, who have identified cutting-edge research and practical applications. They present empirical research, action research, program evaluation, and program descriptions.

Pre-Conference Session

Patti Bridwell, the Dana Center of the University of Texas at Austin

Cost for the Pre-conference and Conference attendees $ 425
Pre-conference only $ 325
