What is a Chinese Auction?

Items are named and each attendee interested in that item will toss a token into a bucket on the center of the table and hold their numbered auction paddle in the air. The auctioneer calls out the numbers that are raised. The last number called by the auctioneer at the sound of a gong wins the prize. Attendees can bid on great items starting at a dollar. This fast-paced dinner event allowing guests to bid on auction items valued from $10- $500+. Also included is a silent auction!
