From International...the possibilities are limitless!

LEARNING LEADERSHIP

IAAP offers unique leadership opportunities...

Your personal and professional goals may include the desire to be in a leadership position. You may want to overcome your fear of being in front of a group and actually speaking coherently! You may want to fine-tune your ability to teamwork and mesh with a group.

Don't just be a member . . .

Get immersed and totally involved! When you join IAAP check out the list of standing committees and find one or two that match your talents and goals.

- ◆ Are you a logical thinker and appreciate legalese? Join the Bylaws and Standing Rules Committee and learn all aspects of your chapter and be a part of directing its future.
- ◆ Are you artistic? Do you like being the hub? Join the Newsletter or Website Committee and be the key link to the entire chapter – and the world!
- ◆ Are you a numbers cruncher? Join the Finance Committee and gain experience working with spreadsheets, budget software, auditing, and more.
- ◆ Are you so excited about IAAP that you want to get others to join? Be a part of the Membership and Public Relations Committees! Market IAAP, establish relationships with local media, cover chapter events and coordinate press releases.
- ◆ Are you an advocate of life-long learning? Joining the Certification Support Committee and the Education/Career Enhancement Committee will help you to encourage others to learn and excel and teach you the value of coordinating educational workshops.
- ◆ Do you like puzzles? Join all the pieces by choosing speakers and topics for monthly meetings by being a part of the Program Committee.

This list is not conclusive and chapter committees may vary.

Beyond Committee Work . . .

After learning about IAAP at the chapter level and serving on committees that help you toward your professional goals, run for a position on the Board of Executive Officers.

- ☞ Start by running for Secretary. This position is vital to the chapter. Precise minutes and recording of board and chapter activities gives a great sense of personal accomplishment.
- ☞ Volunteer to run for Treasurer. You will be the chair of the Finance Committee and can lead others in working with chapter money matters.
- ☞ Being Vice President helps you prepare for the ultimate leadership – President-elect or President. Responsibility for many aspects of the chapter will be yours.
- ☞ The President is the ultimate leadership position. You will have the awesome role of leading your chapter to excellence, recruiting members, and realizing enhancement of all things professional.
- ☞ You can be invited by the president to be a Board Assistant and you will learn about board procedures and chapter regulations before running for a position on the board.
