

Robert Manolson

Robert Manolson, Creator & Facilitator, Powerful Play Experiences, delivers workplace fun & wellness workshops with an authenticity and exuberance that people always describe as “infectious energy and enthusiasm

Creative. Imaginative. Fun. Robert's driving belief that each day and every day we must re-energize and re-ignite our spirit within through the power of play ultimately challenges people to go to their happy place. His workshops have developed a reputation for breaking the laugh barrier, and inspiring all who attend to embrace fun at work...and in life.

Think Play. Think Powerful Play. That's Where the Magic Is.

Without a doubt, fun is truly the best learning model. Get set for an uplifting experience.

Robert is a Certified Career Development Professional who brings a solid education and career background in a broad range of fields from community recreation leadership, marketing and promotions, to youth services and career development. As a Certified Career Counsellor, he brings his motivational art form to both youth and adults ready to make a career change. Robert doesn't settle for anything less than insisting we all follow our heart, find the work we love, and build the life we want.