The meeting was called to order at 11:30 a.m. by President Mary Herrington. Members that were present introduced themselves.

The minutes from the October chapter meeting were approved without any corrections or additions.

The Treasurer's report will be filed for audit.

Cheryl Cook, CPS/CAP announced that the Razorback Chapter is the largest chapter in the A-O division. She encouraged members to attend the 2011 Annual Meeting in Bentonville in June (Mary Ramsey Drow, IAAP International President, will be there). She also encouraged members to sign the Member of Excellence form.

OLD BUSINESS:

Sharon Harvey spoke about November Legacy Month for the Retirement Trust Foundation. This is a program where chapters and members can donate to help members who retire. She will be taking donations and there is more information on our website.

NEW BUSINESS:

Janet Moulden announced that we have adopted two Faith In Action clients this year: Suzie, 87, would like a pair of flannel or cotton PJs size large, regular coffee and instant cappuccino. Suzie also has a dog named Pepper, who might appreciate gifts as well, and Wanda, 76, would like a pair of cotton PJs size 4X or the biggest you can find, regular coffee and a small canned ham. Members should bring items for these ladies to the December meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Linda Dizney, CAP discussed the November 30 membership recruitment meeting. She asked members to help spread the word and to bring any gently used professional clothing and accessories that they would like to donate to the Peace At Home Family Shelter. We will decorate an accessory tree.

Mary Herrington announced that IAAP Committee Service Applications have been emailed to the membership.

Mary Herrington asked members to send articles for the newsletter to April Martin.

The answer to the Question of the Month was given and buttons were passed out to all members who answered correctly.

Teresa Tidwell, CAP shared membership recruitment ideas and made a report from her visit to Heifer International located in Little Rock.

Tamara Ellenbecker introduced Brittany Humphries, a representative from Dillard's accessory department who presented "Dress for Success." She showcased scarves, handbags, watches and jewelry and offered suggestions for how to wear them.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

April Martin
