Keynote Speaker: Linda Chu

Get Organized... and get more out of your time!

Clutter Consultant Linda Chu is the founding owner of Out of Chaos: Professional Organizing Solutions. She is your speaker, consultant and organizing expert in Vancouver and the Lower Mainland.

For over 20 years, Linda has been providing service to the public in the hospitality industry. Having managed front line operations in first-class hotels, high service standards were expected around the clock, and year round.

Linda mastered her organizational skills by effectively managing a small army and helping them to reach their peak performance. While working under constant cutbacks, she was able to refine her skill for streamlining processes by maximizing efficiency and productivity. Through Out of Chaos, Linda sees her role as supporting individuals in both professional and personal/residential situations to identify their organizational challenges.
