

MARCH

22, 1966

"BOSS OF THE YEAR" THOMAS P. HUDSON
With His Secretary, Mrs. Marian Boller

... Record-Herald Ph

Secretaries Choose Boss of Year

Thomas P. Hudson, president of First American National Bank, Wisconsin Valley Trust Co. and Central Wisconsin Bankshares, Inc., was named "boss of the year" by Wausau Chapter, National Secretaries Association (International), Tuesday.

He received a "boss of the year" certificate and statuette and his secretary, Mrs. Marian Boller, was presented a "boss of the year secretary" certificate.

The winner was determined from essays written by the secretaries and judged by Frank Plano, managing editor of the Record - Herald; Phil Carspecken of Employers Insurance, and Richard D. Dudley, president of Wisconsin Valley Television Corp.

The dinner speaker was Dr. Mungo Miller, president of Affiliated Psychological Services of Milwaukee, on the topic, "What Makes the Boss and Secretary Tick?"

Entertainment was by Robert Becker and Miss Sue Braun, folk singers, accompanied by Mr. Becker on guitar. Miss Tilda Mohr was mistress of ceremonies for the program and Mrs. Marian Plumb was general chairman for the evening.

The Wausau Chapter of
The National Secretaries Association (International)
requests the pleasure of your company at its fifth annual Bosses' Night at the Wausau Club
Tuesday evening, March twenty-second at seven-thirty o'clock

Cocktails

Six-thirty o'clock