Executive Travel – Don't Break the Bank Presented by Ginger Blum, Mason Horvath

Booking travel for executives can be hard. We understand the ins and outs of business travel; now let us teach you our secrets. We'll teach you the tips and tricks that travel coordinators use to get their clients into first class without breaking the bank. We will also get into rules and regulations governing international travel.

For the past fifteen years, Ginger Blum has worked her way around the world specializing in the luxury travel sector. Her client list has included Fortune 500 executives, international politicians, and Hollywood celebrities. During her career, Ginger has held management positions in global travel management companies, as well as boutique corporate travel providers.
