

IAAP Vancouver Education Forum & Business Meeting

Invites you to attend:

"Focus on the 90% - Positive Work Relationships"

Presented by:

Darci Lang, Owner of X-L Enterprises

Have you ever worked for someone positive that you will never forget working for? Have you worked for someone who you would like to forget? What was the difference?

Darci Lang will speak to us from her own life experiences. By the age of 24, she was running three separate businesses. She has won and been nominated for over a dozen entrepreneurial and business excellence awards. She knows first hand that working well with others means you have to work on you and your own attitude first.

Darci started speaking over 18 years ago when people wanted to hear about her "focus on the 90%" philosophy and how it shaped her life. As the demand increased, she sold her two other retail companies and focused full-time on her speaking career.

During her presentation, Darci will share with us how one simple tool can change the way we look at life and how we deal with the challenges we face every day. We will build more positive work relationships without sacrificing precious personal energy, learn how to cope with negative people, become the uplifting influence on those around us and discover the strength we already have within to move forward in our careers.
