

How to become this week's "Most Active Member"

When you connect with fellow Massachusetts Bar Association members through interactive My Bar Access tools, such as blogs, online discussions (formerly known as listservs) and resource libraries, your contributions are assigned a point value in recognition of your efforts to engage in conversation within your member groups.

To improve your points-standing, consider participating in the following activities:

Join the conversation on My Bar Access and connect, share and collaborate today.
