I. Please submit a two to three page outline addressing the following information by May 18, 2012.

1. What community service activities have you performed in the last 12 months?
2. What is your work background?
3. What are your career aspirations?
4. IMPI will pay the MPI student membership rate for the scholarship recipient for one year along with a full year of luncheons. How would you become actively involved in the Indiana Chapter?
5. Are you willing to volunteer up to two hours of your time each month to assist in our Chapter Services and/or to serve on a committee for the Indiana Chapter? If so, what strengths and skills could you offer the organization?

II. Please submit a letter of recommendation from a faculty member of your department or someone you have worked with in that field of why you should be considered for this scholarship.

Thank you for your interest in our organization. We will be announcing the two winners of the scholarship at the IMPI Award Night on June 28, 2012. It is our hope that our Scholarship winners will be present at this event.
