President's Letter

At the time I'm writing this, we haven't had our June meeting yet. James Storrow will have given a presentation on his strap iron tower clock restoration in Boston. I'm sure it will be a big hit.

I'd like to thank Bill Clarke, our treasurer, for working with Baird park and the caterers to schedule the picnic, and keep costs to a minimum. I'm hoping volunteers will step up and come early to give Jon Jacobi a hand moving the heavy picnic tables.

Jon and Bill, thanks for all the hard work!

If I don't see you at the picnic, I hope you have a great summer.

~John Greeney

Program: Show and Tell

An old fashioned picnic...

A multi-chapter event with as many as 200 members attending.

Caterers serving breakfast with coffee, delicious pastries and bagels.

Lunch at noon with salad, hot dogs, hamburgers, & chicken including desert

A very large shelter with nice bathrooms. If it rains... no problem.

It's our annual "show and tell meeting" so bring that clock restoration project in, or bring in that unusual clock you own and tell us about it or demonstrate a horological skill... we are always interested.

Bring lawn chairs so you can relax and chat with old friends

Bring your spouse, the kids, grand kids and pets.

Dogs and parrots are welcome, after all it is a picnic.

Tables are free but you must register in advance to reserve one.
(We can only provide one table per family)

$20.00 in advance, $23.00 at the door.
