

Rocket City Regulators (NAWCC Chapter 61)

The Rocket City Regulators is the North Alabama chapter of the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors (NAWCC Chapter 61) located in Huntsville, AL. The chapter was organized Dec. 10, 1967 with seven members. It was granted a NAWCC Charter on December 9, 1969. Its members share an interest in the research, collection and preservation of clocks and watches of historic interest.

Chapter 61- What we do

- Meet monthly to share information about collection and restoration of antique clocks and watches.

- Identify, maintain and preserve public clocks of historic interest.
- Raise appreciation of the community for historical significance of clocks and watches.

- Maintain and develop skills necessary to the identification, restoration and repair of clocks and watches through training and mentoring.

Chapter 61 has presented historical clocks to local area museums including the Huntsville Railroad Depot, the Weeden House Museum, and the Donnell House Museum. Chapter 61 members have repaired tower clocks in Florence, AL, Sewanee, TN, Charleston, SC, and Collinsville, AL. We have provided public watch and clock exhibits on several occasions.

Why Join?

If you are interested in the restoration, repair or collecting of antique clocks, Chapter 61 provides an opportunity for learning, sharing and contributing by providing you with:

- Access to all NAWCC resources for research, training, collaboration and buying/selling at regional and national marts.

- Monthly meetings locally with other members that have similar interests in the collection, repair and restoration of clocks and watches
- Interesting and educational projects to preserve public clocks of historic interest for local community organizations.

- Opportunity to learn from experienced clock and watch collectors and restorers.

What does it cost:

- You must be a NAWCC member
- Chapter membership dues are $10 per year
