

It's like Little League, everyone should get a chance and we are the coach making it happen

Being impartial and fair IS worth its weight in gold

Keeps the auditors in their cubicles

Being able to tell your family and friends that you bid the highly reflective sidewalks they're walking on

Instrumentally assists in providing the best bang for the taxpayers buck

THE TOP 10 REASONS WHY PUBLIC PROCUREMENT HAS VALUE!

Being in the paper isn't always a good thing

4 Words: Public Purchasers ARE Professionals

Cheaper isn't always cheaper, when you consider the risks

Transparency isn't just for ghosts

And the number one reason why public procurement has value...

Because we're taxpayers too
