Andrew Kautz – National Claims Manager
Central Risk and Insurance Management Services Ltd.

Speaker Profiles:

Ross McGowan provides advice to financial institutions and others relating to operations, payment systems, police advice and regulatory compliance. In particular, Ross's practice includes a broad range of financial institution work specifically focused on provision of legal advice to combat loss arising from fraud. Ross has acted on matters ranging from litigation defence work or individual customer complaints to mass tort Ponzi Scheme claims.

Andrew Kautz's, CFE, experience includes handling a wide range of fidelity bond and professional liability claims. He has over 25 years of investigative experience and his work has taken him across Canada and into the United States investigating frauds ranging from a few hundred to several million dollars, including loan frauds, Ponzi schemes, phony vendor scams and investment dealer frauds. In addition to investigating fraud schemes, Andrew pursues recovery from perpetrators of fraud and third parties including auditors, financial institutes and spouses. These efforts include the recovery of funds from Nigeria that had been sent to this country by a dishonest employee in response to one of the infamous "Nigerian Letters".
