Chartis – Company & Market Update

The New York Chapter of RIMS And The Fairfield/Westchester Chapter of RIMS

We are jointly hosting John Q. Doyle, CEO of Global Commercial Business, Chartis and Robert Schimek, CFO, Chartis as key note speakers for our May breakfast meeting. There has been a lot of activity recently at Chartis and AIG including a global reorganization and a reserve increase. What do these changes mean for Chartis' clients and for our industry?

Mr. Doyle and Mr. Schimek will provide an update on Chartis, discuss the insurance market events of 2011 and the outlook for the remainder of 2011. Their appearance is timely and their views of the market are unique as leaders of a leading global underwriting company. Some of the topics they will address are: the impact of the tragedy in Japan, Chartis' 2010 financial results, current market conditions in the industry and the future of Chartis.

Don't miss this great opportunity to hear first hand from these senior Chartis executives on their company and the market. We look forward to seeing you in May for what promises to be an informative program.
