Virginia Beach

Since the first American settlers, locals and visitors alike have been roaming the shores of Virginia Beach in search of adventure. It's that same pioneering spirit that has defined our culture and beckons us all to live the life. It can be as simple as enjoying the daily meeting of the sand and surf or as detailed as a boardwalk search for the ultimate appetizer. Wherever your path may lead, you're sure to have the beach life as your guide.

Mariner's Museum

One of the largest international maritime history museums filled to the crow's nest with prized artifacts that celebrate the spirit of seafaring adventure. Explore over 60,000 square feet of gallery space with rare figureheads, handcrafted ship models, Civil War ironclad USS Monitor artifacts, paintings, small craft from around the world, and much more.

Jamestown Settlement/Yorktown Victory Center

Experience the story of America's beginnings at Jamestown Settlement and the Yorktown Victory Center. Through film, artifact-filled galleries and outdoor living history, these museums engage visitors in nearly two centuries of our nation's history - from the founding of America's first permanent English settlement in 1607 to the decisive Revolutionary War victory in 1781 and implementation of the Constitution and Bill of Rights.
