

The 6th Classic Yacht Symposium™ Call for Papers/Save the Date

The Herreshoff Marine
Museum/America's Cup Hall of Fame
The Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers

May 2-4, 2014

At the Herreshoff Marine Museum, Bristol, RI

Invitation to Authors

Interested parties worldwide are invited to present a paper on a subject relative to excellence in classic yacht design, restoration, replication, or use.

Topics of Interest

- Classic yacht design; analytical & test basis for the designs; comparisons to current practice and technology
- Classic yacht restoration/replication and use; both power and sail
  - Perspectives on elements of a successful project by owner, designer, builder
  - Implementation- research, scope, purpose, techniques, lessons-learned
  - Technical details and features- hull, sails, spars and rig, powering, fittings and outfit, rating rules
  - International experience in rebuilding classic racing fleets
- Adaptation of classic designs to modern materials
- Herreshoff Centennial Yachts- Herreshoff designs celebrating 100 years
  - Newport 29
  - Buzzards Bay 25
  - Buzzards Bay Boys Boats (H12½)

A Special invitation for all owners, former owners, builders, restorers and observers of the Herreshoff Centennial Classes to provide your comments and experiences in a short paper format..

Important Dates

28 June 2013	Submission of abstracts- 300 words
12 July 2013	Authors informed of acceptance
11 October 2013	Submission of draft papers
25 October 2013	Selection of papers to be presented
20 December 2013	Submission of final papers

Guidance and submittals

- For guidance on all papers including Herreshoff Centennial Yacht short papers and submission of abstracts contact j.palmieri@herreshoff.org