BRADENTON, Florida (May 26, 2015) – The 2014-15 Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA) 1st Team All-Americans were announced today at the 2015 NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship being held at Concession Golf Club in Bradenton, Florida. The 11 members of the 1st Team include Emma Talley, NCAA Individual Champion from the University of Alabama, and Leona Maguire, the world's #1 amateur golfer, from Duke University.

The WGCA 1st Team All-Americans include:

Celine Boutier, Duke University
Justine Dreher, University of South Carolina
Dana Finkelstein, UNLV
Lauren Kim, Stanford University
Bronte Law, UCLA
Gaby Lopez, University of Arkansas
Leona Maguire, Duke University
Caroline Nistrup, LSU
Madeline Sagstrom, LSU
Emma Talley, University of Alabama
Monica Vaughn, Arizona State University

The criteria used to determine the WGCA All-American teams include:

- Head to head competition
- Comparison with common opponents
- Scoring average
- Place finishes in regular season events and tournament wins
- Strength of schedule

The WGCA 2nd Team and Honorable Mention All-American Teams will be announced following the NCAA Championship.

About the Women's Golf Coaches Association

The Women's Golf Coaches Association, founded in 1983, is a non-profit organization representing women's collegiate golf coaches. The WGCA was formed to encourage the playing of college golf for women in correlation with a general objective of education and in accordance with the highest tradition of intercollegiate competition. Today, the WGCA represents over 500 coaches throughout the U.S. and is dedicated to educating, promoting and recognizing both its members and the student-athletes they represent.
