Distinguished Service Award Guidelines
Deadline Posted on AAFCS Website

The Distinguished Service Award (DSA) was established in 1979 as a living tribute to members of the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences (AAFCS) recognizing superior achievements in family and consumer sciences, outstanding contributions to the family and consumer sciences profession, and sustained AAFCS leadership at both state and national levels.

Applying for the Distinguished Service Award
• The applicant is a current dues-paying member of AAFCS with continuous membership for 20 years or more.
• Applicant is a current family and consumer sciences professional, or actively employed in a family and consumer sciences-related profession, or retired.
• Applicant has evidence of:
  o gaining and retaining a national and/or international reputation for outstanding achievements in family and consumer sciences;
  o a professional record showing sustained commitment to AAFCS and the family and consumer sciences profession;
  o significant contributions to the AAFCS organization at affiliate and national/international levels; and o professional contributions to strengthening individuals, families and communities through service to allied organizations and in the community.
• An individual member may be nominated for the DSA by any group of AAFCS members.
• Application materials may be prepared by the applicant or the nominating individual/group.
• A fundraising campaign will be conducted in conjunction with the DSA Award Program, with a goal of $10,000 per awardee; the fundraising efforts will be led by a campaign coordinator identified in the application.
• Applicants can submit to only one AAFCS award, grant, fellowship, or scholarship per annual review cycle.
• Members of the AAFCS Board of Directors and Awards and Recognition Committee are not eligible to apply during their terms of office. AAFCS staff are not eligible to apply during their periods of employment with the Association.
• All award materials must be submitted in English.
• All policies, procedures, and guidelines must be followed for the award application to be considered for juried review.

Submitting the Application
The application must be submitted using the official application form and in the order below as one PDF document. Please be aware of the page requirements for each section. Evaluating the Distinguished Service Award Application

- Individuals who are nominated for an award and those who nominate or write a letter of recommendation for a current nominee cannot serve as jurors for this award.
- Jurors cannot review applications from family members, their current students, students at their own institution, or nominees who share the same employer. Jurors are responsible for identifying any applicants that include a potential conflict of interest and recusing themselves from the review process.
- An individual who has been nominated and/or applied for an award, grant, fellowship, or scholarship shall not serve as a juror for any award, grant, fellowship, or scholarship during the period in which his or her own application is being reviewed.
- Jurors selected by the AAFCS Awards and Recognition Committee review the application and assign points using the Evaluation Criteria.
- A positive vote by five of the seven-member panel is required for approval of a DSA nomination.

Awarding the Distinguished Service Award

- No more than three awards shall be made in a given year without special action by the DSA Juror Panel.
- The Awards and Recognition Committee reserves the right not to award a grant, award, fellowship, or scholarship if jurors do not find a worthy applicant.
- The names of the approved DSA nominees will be presented by the DSA Juror Panel to the AAFCS Board of Directors for final endorsement.
- The recipient(s) will be contacted by the AAFCS President.
- The DSA recipient and campaign coordinator will receive official notification from AAFCS via email or postal mail.

Recognizing the Distinguished Service Award Recipient(s)

- The Distinguished Service Award recipient(s) are recognized at the AAFCS Annual Conference.
- The Distinguished Service Award recipient(s) will receive complimentary registration for the annual conference and must be in attendance.

Coordinating the DSA Honorary Fund Campaign

The DSA Campaign Coordinator is identified in the DSA application. The Coordinator is critical to the successful completion of the DSA recognition and will work with the AAFCS staff liaison for Awards and Recognition. Campaign Coordinators will receive an email following the announcement of the DSA recipient with specific information and deadlines. Responsibilities of the Coordinator include:

- Actively leading fundraising efforts and monitor progress of fund development
- Distribute the campaign appeal letter to potential donors for financial support of the DSA Honorary Fund. A sample appeal letter will be provided by AAFCS. Reimbursement may be available to defray some of the expenses incurred with the letter distribution.
- Review personalized DSA citations included on the award
- Provide photographs/images for use in the awards recognition

Failure to follow the guidelines will result in ineligibility of the nominee for the award.
