

American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences
 Evaluation Rubric: Participant Application for 2021 AAFCS Leadership Academy

Evaluation Criteria	Points Possible	Points Awarded
1. Presented a personal leadership plan for AAFCS, including a vision statement and professional goals that illustrate a significant level of creative thinking.	15
2. Presented a personal leadership plan in other settings, including a vision statement and professional goals that illustrate a significant level of creative thinking.	10
3. Presented a well thought out plan for obtaining the outcomes of the Leadership Academy as well as a thoughtful response to the impact of the outcomes on her/his personal plan.	20
4. Definition of leadership illustrated a significant level of thought and included terms indicative of comprehension of leadership concepts.	10
5. Presented a well thought out description of her/his most significant leadership accomplishments and challenges, including an appropriate self-reflection on those experiences.	15
6. Vita illustrated ongoing active participation in AAFCS at the college, affiliate, and national levels.	10
7. Vita illustrated leadership through service and/or successful fundraising for projects or programs that enhance community service.	10
8. Vita illustrated creative planning and implementation of programs, applied research and/or scholarship activities that have contributed to either the FCS knowledge base or to the resolution of current issues faced by individuals, families, or communities.	5
9. Earned one or more AAFCS credentials/certifications in FCS.	5
Total Points	100	