

American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences
Evaluation Rubric: Application for Leadership Academy Mentor

Evaluation Criteria	Points Possible	Points Awarded
Presented a well thought out description of leadership experiences with AAFCS on the affiliate and/or national level including skills and qualities used during experiences. (Question #A1)	15
Presented a well thought out reason for wanting to be a mentor. Addressed previous mentor experience. (Question #A2)	15
Presented a well thought out description of past or present professional goals and professional philosophy related to Family and Consumer Sciences and AAFCS. (Question #A3)	15
Presented a thoughtful description of how role as a mentor for an Academy participant will help build his/her model of success. (Question #A4)	15
Presented a well thought out description of leadership challenge(s) and the overcoming of this/these challenges. (Question #A5)	10
Presented a well thought out description of most rewarding leadership experience(s) outside of AAFCS (Question #A6)	5
Illustrated ongoing active participation in AAFCS at collegiate, affiliate, or national levels through service on committees, holding office, participating in annual meetings, etc. on the resume or vita. (Question #B1)	10
Contributed to the leadership activities through service, successful raising of funds for projects and programs, development or implementation of projects or programs, etc. (Question #B2)	5
Included a description of creative planning and implementation of programs, applied research and/or scholarship activity that have contributed to the family and consumer sciences knowledge base or to the resolution of current problems of individuals, families, or communities and/or c) online training, presentations, and/or classes. (Question #B3)	5*
Earned one or more AAFCS credentials in family and consumer sciences.	5
Total Number of Points	100

*If item is not responded to in the application, the final score will be weighted.