

Theses and Dissertations Completed in Family and Consumer Sciences: 2016

Melissa J. Wilmarth and Jennifer E. Schopp

University of Alabama

The annual survey of family and consumer sciences graduate programs at American universities and colleges was completed between May and June 2017. The goal was to compile a list of theses and dissertations completed in 2016 from all areas of family and consumer sciences. Requests for titles and authors were sent three times by e-mail to institutions with family and consumer sciences programs. A total of 259 theses and 194 dissertations were reported from 35 universities and colleges. The following is a report of the information provided by institution respondents by subject category including author, title, institution, and name of student's advisor.

ART AND DESIGN (INCLUDING INTERIOR DESIGN)

Doctorate

- Abdelmonem, M. (2016). Identifying physical design of connected-to-home among depressed elderly in long-term care facilities: An exploratory study. Texas Tech University. Advisor: K. Gaines.
- Housharian, N. (2016). Healthcare planning parameters affecting efficiency in emergency departments. Texas Tech University. Advisor: D. Pati.
- Pham, D. (2016). Examining the use of building information modeling (BIM) for interior design process in a professional setting. Texas Tech University. Advisor: K. Gaines.
- Valipoor, S. (2016). An objective evaluation of patient seating solutions for the elderly population. Texas Tech University. Advisor: D. Pati.

Master's

- Alsadun, I. (2016). Integrating optimal classroom design at the elementary level in the Saudi Arabia classroom. Texas Tech University. Advisors: K. Gaines and M. Pearson.
- Carrasco, G. (2016). Retrofitting lighting systems to improve the circadian rhythm of individuals in long-term care. Texas Tech University. Advisors: K. Gaines and M. Pearson.

Authors' Note: Melissa J. Wilmarth, Ph.D., is an assistant professor in the Department of Consumer Sciences at the University of Alabama. Jennifer E. Schopp is a master's student in the Department of Consumer Sciences at the University of Alabama. Please address correspondence to Melissa J. Wilmarth, 316A Adams Hall, Box 870158, Tuscaloosa, AL 35473; e-mail: mwilmarth@ches.ua.edu. The authors wish to express appreciation to the schools and individuals who provided the data for this report. Also, the authors wish to express a special thanks to Lori Myers (AAFCS Staff) and Caitlin Wall (University of Alabama Graduate Student) for assistance in expanding the list of contacts at family and consumer sciences programs.
