Help Keep Children Safe from Laundry Packet Accidents!

Join ACI in spreading our education messages about the proper storage, use and handling of liquid laundry packets.

As educators, you know that children are curious and act fast. This curiosity can lead to accidents and injury. In fact, in 2013 there were more than 10,000 laundry packet exposures in children five and younger.*

The American Cleaning Institute® is dedicated to reducing the number of accidental exposures to the contents of highly-concentrated liquid laundry packets, which is why we created the KEY Pledge educational campaign – now in its second year.

Help us champion our cause! American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences members can lend a hand by taking the KEY Pledge – yes, you can take it again in year two! – and sharing it with your communities, along with these three simple steps to help keep children safe...

- Keep single-load liquid laundry packets out of the reach of children
- Educate your family and friends about the safe use and storage of these new laundry products
- You serve a key role in laundry safety

ACI recently announced the first KEY Pledge sweepstakes winner, Cynthia Moreno. Cynthia happens to be a Family and Consumer Sciences educator and truly values safe use of liquid laundry packets. Like Cynthia, you could be the winner of a $2,500 gift card to create a safe laundry room and routine by taking the KEY Pledge.

American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences (AAFCS)

Based in the Washington, D.C., area, AAFCS is the only professional association that provides leadership and support to family and consumer sciences (FCS) students and professionals from multiple practice settings and content areas. AAFCS members assist individuals, families, and communities in making informed decisions about their well-being, relationships, and resources to achieve optimal quality of life.

For over 100 years, AAFCS members have been working to improve the quality and standards of individual and family life by delivering educational programs, influencing public policy, and conducting research. They provide research-based knowledge about the topics of everyday life, including human development, personal and family finance, housing and interior design, food science, nutrition and wellness, textiles and apparel, and consumer issues.

You will see AAFCS members in all walks of life—they are early childhood, elementary, secondary, university/college, and Extension educators, administrators and managers, human service professionals, researchers, community volunteers, business people, and consultants who help people achieve a healthy and sustainable world.

AAFCS members receive many benefits, including membership in their affiliates, networking opportunities through AAFCS Communities, advocacy support, the Journal of Family & Consumer Sciences, and discounts on registration fees for virtual and on-site professional development events, group insurance plans, and more. AAFCS also offers industry-recognized pre-professional and professional FCS assessments and certifications, and is the sole accreditation agent in the United States for FCS baccalaureate programs.

Each year, AAFCS brings FCS and allied professionals together at its annual conference and expo to share their knowledge, research, and experience and work on integrated solutions to address current societal challenges. Welcome to the 105th Annual Conference & Expo!

American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences
105th Annual Conference and Expo
St. Louis, Missouri

Greetings:

It is my great pleasure to welcome to St. Louis the delegates and guests attending the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences 105th Annual Conference and Expo.

St. Louis is pleased to host an organization of professionals dedicated to addressing the well-being, relationships and resources necessary to sustain a high quality of life for individuals, families, and communities. This year’s theme, Global Gateway to Healthy and Sustainable Families, is indicative of the commitments and vision that you share with our great City.

While here, I invite you to take advantage of everything St. Louis has to offer its visitors. For example, the Missouri Botanical Garden and the St. Louis Zoo are internationally acclaimed for their environmental work. You might also enjoy a stroll along the Gateway Mall, a green space that extends from the Gateway Arch grounds to Union Station along Market Street.

A city of history built west from the Mississippi River, St. Louis offers fine examples of architecture, culture, and art. From Laclede’s Landing to the Old Courthouse to Grand Center and onward to the Central West End and Forest Park, there is much to do and see.

Last but not least, please join us in celebrating St. Louis’ 250th anniversary. As you explore the City, be sure to look for the birthday cakes marking some of our most significant moments up to this point! Best wishes for a successful conference in St. Louis, and please visit the Gateway City again, soon!

Sincerely,

April 9, 2014

Greetings:

As Governor of the state of Missouri, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to St. Louis for the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences’ 105th Annual Conference & Expo. I extend my sincere congratulations on another successful year, and commend every member in attendance for the important role they play in improving the lives of individuals, families and communities.

I appreciate your dedicated efforts in providing families and consumer science professionals a voice, and for working effortlessly on their behalf.

Again, congratulations on your 105th annual conference and best wishes for an enjoyable and productive gathering.

Sincerely,

Welcome to the AAFCS

105TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE & EXPO • ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Annual Conference Planning Advisory Committee, and the staff of the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences (AAFCS), welcome to the AAFCS 105th Annual Conference & Expo: Family & Consumer Sciences: Global Gateway to Healthy and Sustainable Families!

As you review our amazing conference program on pages 27 – 64, you’ll see that there are numerous ways to build your family and consumer sciences (FCS) knowledge and skills: more than 50 peer-reviewed educational sessions, a wide spectrum of sessions of special interest, and outstanding keynotes from internationally accomplished professionals! And, meet top FCS experts and network at events like the Curriculum Showcase, Juried Design Showcase, and Poster Sessions.

We encourage you to connect with FCS professionals from various practice settings and content areas from across the country. On Thursday, make new connections at Communities and Affiliates Showcase and Networking, as well as the Expo Grand Opening. Then on Friday, come to the Expo networking breaks for special events (meet Project Runway Winner Seth Aaron Henderson!) and giveaways and mingle with colleagues and alumni and enjoy refreshments at University Reunions later that evening.

After reviewing the program, use our Planning Page on page 12 to maximize your time at the conference. If you’re new to AAFCS, be sure to attend the New Members and First Time Conference Attendees Meet-Up on Thursday evening, hosted by the AAFCS Membership Committee. You’ll get some great tips and advice from AAFCS conference veterans!

Thank you for choosing the AAFCS 105th Annual Conference & Expo in St. Louis. In addition to participating in all of the learning opportunities, we hope you take some time to enjoy the city and have fun!

Sincerely,

AAFCS Annual Conference & Expo Attendance

Attendance at the Annual Conference and the Expo is by registration badge only; admission to all events, sessions, and the Expo is restricted to those with a registration badge.

Advance Ticket Sales

Tickets for AAFCS-sponsored meals and special events must be purchased in advance. Because AAFCS must guarantee meal reservations prior to the opening of the conference, educational excursion and meal tickets will not be sold, exchanged, or refunded onsite.

Annual Conference Local Advisory Committee (ACLAC) Information Desk

The 2014 ACLAC is hosting an information desk near the AAFCS Registration Desk. They will have information about St. Louis and the surrounding areas, the Annual Conference, and restaurant services. The AAFCS message board will also be in this area. The 2015 ACLAC will also be hosting an information desk to answer your questions about our 2015 Conference in Jacksonville, Florida.

Association Central

The AAFCS Booth area (Association Central) is located in the Expo Hall. Stop by to meet AAFCS staff and network with fellow colleagues and peers.

Communication Devices

The use of mobile technology devices is permitted. We encourage you to join the conversation on Twitter at #AAFCSac. The passcode to access the Internet is aafcs. As a courtesy to the presenter, please ensure that sounds and alerts are silenced. Thank you.

Endorsements

Presentation of a program or advertisement of a product, service, or viewpoint should not be construed as an endorsement by the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences.

Educational Excursions

Tickets for the Missouri Educational Excursions must have been purchased in advance. Tickets for excursions will not be available onsite.

Educational Topics

Participants in the AAFCS 105th Annual Conference will be able to enhance their learning in the following areas:

1. Advancing technology to promote healthy families
2. Creating an environment for sustainability
3. Examining health, wellness, and living well
4. Advocating for individuals, families, and the profession
5. Exploring economic issues impacting healthy and sustainable families

Expo

The Expo is in the Regency Ballroom on the second floor of the Hyatt Regency St. Louis at the Arch. Companies and organizations from across the United States will present the latest information on new products and services. Because of insurance, children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult at this educational event.

Expo hours are:

Grand Opening
Thursday, June 26 4:15pm - 7:00pm

Expo Open
Friday, June 27 8:30am - 4:30pm

Networking Breaks
Friday, June 27
8:30am - 9:00am
11:30am - 12:00pm
1:15pm - 1:45pm
4:00pm - 4:30pm
General Information

First Aid/Emergencies

If there is an emergency at the Hyatt Regency St. Louis at The Arch, please dial extension 55 from any hotel telephone. The hotel has trained professionals that will respond to the emergency location to render aid. If the situation is life threatening, we encourage you to dial 911 directly.

Lost and Found

The lost and found is located at the AAFCS Registration Desk.

Parking

Overnight Valet Parking: $28 per night including tax. Self-Parking: $16.00 plus tax per day.

Product Sales Tables

The committees, communities, affiliates, and small businesses of AAFCS offer a number of products for sale during the conference. Sales tables are located outside of the Expo in the Regency Ballroom Foyer.

Products are available for purchase during the following hours:

- Friday, June 27: 9:00am - 5:30pm
- Saturday, June 28: 9:00am - 1:00pm

Professional Development Credit

Professional Development Units (PDUs) for AAFCS-Certified Professionals

AAFCS credentials are the most credible national credentials a family and consumer sciences professional can achieve. AAFCS offers four professional credentials: (1) Certified in Family and Consumer Sciences (CFCS), broad field credential; (2) Certified in Human Development and Family Studies (CFCS-HDFS), concentration credential; (3) Certified in Hospitality, Nutrition, and Food Science (CFCS-HNFS), concentration credential; and (4) Certified Personal and Family Finance Educator (CPFFE). Meeting the ongoing professional development requirements to maintain the professional credentials assures potential employers, clients, and the general public that the professional has a commitment to expanding competence and expertise through ongoing participation in professional development activities.

For AAFCS certified professionals, an official Certificate of Completion has been placed in the Annual Conference packet you received at registration. This form is necessary to verify professional development units (PDUs). Professionals with a CFCS credential can earn up to 35.25 PDUs and professionals with a CPFFE credential can earn up to 34.25 PDUs through attendance at the Annual Conference, including participation in approved educational excursions. PDUs may be earned by attending sessions and viewing exhibits. PDUs are also earned by attending certain meal functions that include a scheduled speaker (see individual descriptions and PDU notations in the program). Remember to document your PDUs on the Certificate of Completion included in your Annual Conference packet!

Continuing Education Unit (CEU) Credit for Certified Family Life Educators

Some AAFCS Annual Conference sessions are approved for CEU credit for the Certified Family Life Educator program through the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR). If you are a Certified Family Life Educator and would like to earn CEU credit, please come to the AAFCS Registration Desk for a list of approved sessions and a certificate.

Registration

The AAFCS Registration Desk is located in the foyer outside of the Grand Ballroom of the Hyatt Regency hotel. Registration materials may only be picked up by the individual who is registered for the conference.

Registration hours are:

- Tuesday, June 24: 5:00pm - 6:30pm
- Wednesday, June 25: 8:00am - 6:00pm
- Thursday, June 26: 7:00am - 5:00pm
- Friday, June 27: 7:30am - 5:00pm
- Saturday, June 28: 8:00am - 2:00pm
Registration List

An alphabetical list of all attendees registered for the AAFCS Annual Conference is available for your review at the AAFCS Registration Desk. Attendees are also encouraged to use the AAFCS Membership Directory (members-only), AAFCS Communities (members-only), Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn to connect with colleagues and presenters.

2014 Senate

Friday, June 27
Part I: 5:00pm-6:30pm (credentialing will occur at the registration desk)

Saturday, June 28
Part II: 3:45pm-5:30pm

Only certified senators and members of the Board of Directors are to be admitted to the reserved seating section. The Senate unreserved seating area is open to all AAFCS members and other Annual Conference registrants.

Please note: Senators will receive their voting card, senator ribbon, and one identification card for each of the Senate Session Parts in their registration packet. This is a different process than in past years so take special note of this new procedure to be credentialed. Each Senator will need to pick up their Senate credentialing items in person at the Registration desk.

Smoking

The hotel is completely smoke-free throughout the indoor space. There are designated smoking areas outside the hotel.

Survey

Your feedback about your AAFCS Annual Conference & Expo experience is very important to AAFCS. The information we receive helps us in planning future conferences to better meet your needs. On July 2, AAFCS will post a link to the 105th Annual Conference & Expo online survey on the AAFCS homepage (www.aafcs.org). You will have two weeks to complete the survey. In order to help you complete the survey as accurately as possible, we have provided some topics for you to consider during the Annual Conference & Expo:

- Reasons for attending the Annual Conference & Expo
- Value of the Annual Conference events and sessions
- Open hours and value of the Expo
- Suggestions for future conferences
- Reasons why you would attend next year’s conference

We look forward to receiving your feedback in the online survey.

Bake for Good: Kids Learn Bake Share
The FREE “Bake for Good: Kids Learn Bake Share” Program visits hundreds of schools each year to teach kids in grades 4–7 how to bake yeast bread from scratch. Proud of their new skills, kids take ingredients home to bake two delicious loaves of bread; they donate one and enjoy the other. This fun and informative class demonstrates how the program uses science and math to teach bread baking, provides an opportunity for service learning, and teaches kids baking skills. Take home info about hosting the program for your students, bread baking tips, and wonderful door prizes!

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS – BLOCK 4

9:15am - 10:15am    Grand A
Combating Textile Waste in the Global Classroom
We throw away such a large amount of textiles each year, and the production of these textiles has made an environmental footprint at each stage of its life cycle. During this session, we’ll focus on promoting the reuse of textiles and our activities will address the importance of sustainability to the apparel, design, and textiles classroom.

Presenter:
Troy Anderson, taanderson@pittstate.edu

9:15am - 10:15am    Grand B
The Status of Secondary FCS Programs
What is the current status of secondary FCS programs? Find out at this session! A replication of the study conducted by Werhan & Way (2006) has been completed and the data is available. Discuss uses of and implications for the results of this study.

Presenter:
Carol R. Werhan, CFCS, cwerhan@pittstate.edu
9:15am - 10:15am    Grand C
Sugar Shockers: Rethink Your Food and Drink
Consuming high-calorie food and beverages leads to obesity and other health problems. In this interactive session, learn the science behind sugar consumption. Leave this session with clear understandings of the calorie consequences of food and beverage choices, reasons to increase water consumption, and tasty ways to choose healthy, lower calorie food and drinks.

Presenter:
Maureen Lyons, maureen@learningzonexpress.com

9:15am - 10:15am    Grand F
Sustaining FCS Programs in Higher Education: Re-Visioning FCS Through a Policy Lens at Fontbonne University
From educator to analyst—journey with presenters who re-visioned an undergraduate FCS program to embrace 21st century challenges, tackling implications of the institution’s Program Prioritization Committee findings. Presenters will survey lessons learned from other programs and organizations and share strategies that successfully re-positioned the program, including mission-oriented perspectives, curriculum development, and partnership-building.

Presenters:
Janine Duncan, jduncan@fontbonne.edu
Cheryl Houston, CFCS, chouston@fontbonne.edu

Researcher:
Suzanne Swope, sswope@fontbonne.edu

9:15am - 10:15am    Grand G
Extreme Makeover: Technology for Educational and Business Applications
Bring your own device (BYOD) to participate in a variety of educational and business applications to enhance instruction, communication, and participation. DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARDEES

Sharon McManus, CFCS,
“A Legacy of Leadership”

Sharon McManus has been an AAFCS member continuously for more than 51 years, serving throughout in leadership roles at the local, district, state, national, and international levels.

She has enjoyed and excelled in her teaching career and in her volunteer service, and has been recognized for it with several awards, including the AAFCS Leader Award, The Ohio Teacher of the Year Award, and the Ohio Distinguished Service Award. Around the world, families, individuals and communities have benefited from her work serving as director of the International Federation for Home Economics Development Fund and the IFHE-US Development Fund.

Sharon’s life exemplifies distinguished service to AAFCS and the FCS profession, and AAFCS welcomes the opportunity to honor her as a “DSA.”

Virginia Moxley,
“A Visionary Servant Leader”

Virginia Moxley has a distinguished career in higher education. She’s influenced and inspired thousands of students, faculty, staff, alumni, and colleagues through her respect for the history of the profession, her institutional and professional association leadership, and her life of service to others.

Virginia is a professor of family and studies and human services at Kansas State University and co-director of the Institute for Academic Alliances that provides consultation and management support for higher education alliances nationwide. While serving as dean of the College of Human Ecology from 2006-2013, the college realized a substantial increase in extramural funding and student enrollment.

Virginia has served both AAFCS and the Kansas Affiliate through a variety of roles related to governance. She holds a BS in textile science, an MS in family counseling, and a PhD in education, all from Kansas State University. AAFCS is proud to honor Virginia Moxley as a 2014 “DSA.”

Linda Schaeffer,
“Mentor and Role Model to Many”

During the last 50 years, Linda Schaeffer has served AAFCS in a variety of ways, including her continued commitment to the Pennsylvania Affiliate for 30 years as the executive director. Her competence and ability in this capacity was recognized at the national level and resulted in continued training, leadership, and mentoring for other state executive directors nationwide.
Linda found her niche in family and consumer sciences in innovative ways. In 1984, she worked for a displaced homemaker center; in 1990, she assumed the role of director of the center, and, recognizing the difficulties faced by displaced homemakers, she worked to secure funding to continue the center and expand it, helping more homemakers gain the support and skills they needed to support their families. Linda is a committed professional who has participated in the debates and challenges that the organization has confronted over the past half century. AAFCS is thrilled to honor Linda as a “DSA.”

Cynthia Smith, “Advocacy Without Boundaries”

Cynthia Smith has bloomed from a conscientious graduate student to a professional who has made noteworthy contributions to the family and consumer sciences profession. From a temporal perspective, her professional experiences have continuously built and formulated into the current responsibilities she now holds as professor, administrator, and researcher at Alabama A&M University.

Significant accomplishments in higher education resident instruction span the range of curriculum development, teaching innovations, publications, and mentoring. Similarly, her initiatives in grantsmanship resulted in a continuous flow of grant funding from 1981 to 2011.

Cynthia’s professional commitment to excellence and steadfast engagement in AAFCS and other professional organizations has been exemplified by her receipt of numerous awards and recognitions, including the 2013 Outstanding Service Award, Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society. It is AAFCS’ honor to include Dr. Smith’s name on our esteemed list of “DSAs.”

Looking Forward:
The 2015 Distinguished Service Award
