

JOURNAL OF FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCES
Author Guidelines Checklist

Your manuscript...	Yes?
topic is relevant and timely
topic is appropriate for JFCS (of interest to JFCS readers) makes meaningful contributions for the profession and is thought provoking presents new knowledge and/or new ways of thinking about and/or applying research/strategy/practice to everyday issues is well written : sentence structure, composition, grammar, and punctuation correct—consistent with latest APA style
title is clear, concise and informative; consistent with article content
abstract reflects contents and major contributions of the paper; is not duplicated in the paper
introduction states relevance/significance, purpose ; shows how relates to FCS
use of existing literature is concise and presents accurate summary of current state of knowledge
theoretical and/or conceptual framework, typology or taxonomy are clearly explained and used to frame the paper
conclusions are justifiable and logical, address purpose of paper that are stated in the introduction
implications/recommendations/applications flow from the rest of the paper and relate to FCS ; are realistic and achievable
references are current (older sources OK if justifiable) and format follows APA in text citations and in the list. All references are cited in text; all citations are listed in Reference List
tables, figures and/or appendices are well designed and clearly presented, referred to in the text, and necessary to enhance understanding of the text (try to limit to one or two total, but more are allowable if necessary)
cover letter includes article title, category, focus, relevance to JFCS (including the issue themes, if applicable), with a statement on human subject review/approval (if applicable) and other appropriate elements; corresponding author is identified with a complete address, telephone numbers (work, home, and cellular), fax number, and e-mail address. Title page includes all authors full names plus degrees (e.g., PhD, EdD, not “Dr.”). (JFCS does not use bachelor’s or master’s degrees.) Include all elements in one file (including cover letter) and email that file to dbass@aafcs.org .
Author Verification Form-Research is included if your manuscript reports a research study (gathers data)—see website for form.	