

Back-to-School Journal Prompts: “What I’m Excited About”

1. What are you most excited to learn this year?
2. What’s something new you hope to try at school?
3. Who are you excited to see again?
4. What does your dream school day look like?
5. What’s one thing you’re proud of from last year that you want to build on?
6. What school supplies are you most excited to use?
7. What’s one thing you hope your teacher knows about you?
8. What’s something fun you hope to do at recess or lunch?
9. What kind of classroom do you hope to be part of this year?
10. What’s one goal you have for yourself this school year?
11. What’s one thing you hope to get better at this year?
12. What kind of friend do you want to be this school year?
13. What’s something fun you remember from last year that you hope happens again?
14. What’s one thing you’re curious to learn more about?
15. What’s something you’re excited to do after school?
16. What’s one way you want to help your teacher or classmates?
17. What’s something you’re excited to do on the playground?
18. What’s one thing you want to create or build this year?
19. What’s something new you hope to see in your classroom?
20. What’s one thing that makes you feel brave about going back to school?