

WISCONSIN ASSOCIATION OF FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

Travelship Award for National AAFCS Conference

Updated 09/2018

Application Form

The purpose of this travelship is to encourage and support student and professional attendance at the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS) Annual Conference. Up to three $300 awards for students and up to three $500 awards for professionals will be provided toward expenses not reimbursed from other sources and toward normal expenses such as registration, lodging, and travel (specifically not for food with the exception of “Ticketed Meal Functions” associated with the conference.) You must be a current AAFCS member to be eligible for these travelships and preference will be given to first time attendees and/or those in the early years of their professional careers. Each awardee may receive this travelship only once. Awardees are expected to present at the WAFCS Annual Conference or submit an article for the WAFCS Newsletter.

Before beginning, it is suggested you save this form file to your desktop first affording you the opportunity of completion off line.
