Happy Holidays

As FCS Professionals have a voice in reviewing the proposed National Middle Level FCS Standards. To help with this process, follow the below steps.

1. Review the PowerPoint (you had received) to understand the process for building the standards and completing the survey.
2. Go to https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FCSMidLevelStandards and complete this short survey.
3. Share this message and the attachments with others who would provide valuable feedback, encouraging them to complete the survey.

My family consists of:
- Me and my 5 year old twins, Arleigh and Bronson.

Current job and educational background:
- Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher for the School District of North Fond du Lac. I have bachelors degrees in FCS and Tech Ed, and a Masters in Career and Technical Education. I am also a driver ed teacher!

Passions outside of work:
- I love spending time with my kids. We enjoy being outside, going to museums and cooking together. Pictured, we spent some time camping in Door County last summer and loved picking cherries!

Last book I read was:
- Lessons in Chemistry. So good! A love story intertwined with the science of cooking!

Most cherished item on your desk:
- My coffee mug collection!

Most guilty 'food' pleasure:
- Popcorn! I love putting different seasonings on. My favorite currently is a garlic/maple combo!
Foundation Scholarships, Grants and Travelships

From originally offering one $300 undergraduate scholarship, fast-forward to the current benefits of more than $9,000 that WAFCS Foundation makes available to members.

Details for applying for all member benefits can be found on the WAFCS website at aafcs.org/wafcs under the Foundation or For Students headings (or for a specific application form, contact Jean Zeithaml at 715-836-8330 or djzeithaml@att.net).

To promote the concept that “Membership has its Benefits!” you must be a current AAFCS/WAFCS member to be eligible and preference for the conference travelships will be given to first-time attendees and/or those in the early years of their professional careers.
