Greetings From Your President, Cindy Quilling: Welcome The New Year 2017!

As we leave the holiday season I assume most trees have been untrimmed and decorations put away. We exchanged gifts with those people special to us. Yet with the many gifts we received the holidays bring into focus what we may really treasure. We treasure the gifts of time with family. We treasure the random acts of kindness from strangers like the person who held the Kohl's door open for me while I was carrying packages. Maybe you treasured being able to sleep in or the long 3-day weekends.

WAFCS has provided for me a number of treasures. The numerous leaders in our organization are a treasure. It made me so proud to forward to AAFCS our New Achiever nominee and two Leader Award nominees. Working with an outstanding executive council is a treasure to me and to the WAFCS organization. The strong initiatives of AAFCS 'Say YES to FCS' and 'FCSFit' are treasures to the membership. A treasure that will keep on giving is attending WAFCS Annual Conference, 'Individual, Family, Community FCSFit' on March 2-4, 2017 trusting that many of you are already registered!

My wish for you is that this New Year be one of your best as you reflect on your gifts and the treasures they become.

“Membership Has Its Benefits!”

Foundation Offers Membership Benefits & Encourages/Seeks Applicants

By Jean Zeithaml, CFCS, WAFCS Foundation Member-at-Large

New Graduate Scholarship and Professional Travelships to Promote Conference Attendance

The Foundation has been supportive of student members for years in the form of scholarships and travelships to promote their attendance at State WAFCS and National AAFCS Annual Conferences. The Foundation has expanded member benefits by reaching out to our professional members. Specifically, the Foundation created THREE NEW MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS to professional members:

- Graduate Scholarship ($1000)—February 15 deadline!
- Stipend (three at up to $125 each) to promote professional attendance at our State WAFCS Annual Conference—February 15 deadline!
- Travelships (three at up to $300 each) to promote professional attendance at the National AAFCS Annual Conference—April 1 deadline!

These new benefits are in addition to the Undergraduate Scholarship ($500)—February 15 deadline—and current travelships available to students to support their attendance at both the State WAFCS and National AAFCS Annual Conferences. Details for applying for ALL of these benefits can be found on the WAFCS website at www.wafcs.org under Forms & Applications and then under WAFCS Foundation Forms and/or Student Scholarship and Travelship (or for a specific application form, contact Jean Zeithaml at 715-836-8330 or djzeithaml@att.net). To promote the concept that “Membership has its Benefits!” you must be a current AAFCS member to be eligible and preference for the conference travelships will be given to first-time attendees and/or those in the early years of their professional careers.

Professional Project/Research Grant

The Foundation also continues to offer up to $1,000 in grant money for a special project or research proposal related to the field of Family and Consumer Sciences. Applicants must hold a bachelor’s degree and be a current member of AAFCS. The grant recipient will acknowledge the grantor and share his/her project/research findings or results with the WAFCS/AAFCS membership via a WAFCS newsletter article and/or presentation at a WAFCS and/or AAFCS Annual Meeting. Preferably, the grant recipient will be present at the 2017 WAFCS Annual Conference to receive the award.

To apply for a grant, applicants should submit a one to two-page proposal (preferably via email) to Karen Goebel kpgoebel@wisc.edu, Vera Riley verariley@aol.com, and Jean Zeithaml djzeithaml@att.net no later than February 15, 2017. For questions, contact Karen at 608-444-2652. The grant recipient will be announced at the 2017 WAFCS Annual Conference in Appleton, March 2-4, 2017.

Proposals must include:

- Name, address, phone number, e-mail address, and AAFCS member number of applicant(s).
- Project description and objectives (or statement of problem and justification, research objectives, and methodology or procedure).
- Proposed time frame for the project/research.
- Amount requested with rationale for request, e.g., how grant funds will be used.
- Plan for dissemination of project results/research findings.

Items Needed for One-Day Silent Auction!

The Silent Auction held during the WAFCS Annual Conference is the Foundation’s primary fundraising activity. So, come prepared to “Bid HIGH and Bid OFTEN!” Please consider donating good quality items to benefit scholarships, professional grants and stipends, travelships, and WAFCS organizational membership in IFHE. “Theme” or pamper baskets are popular as well as homemade items. Re-gifting is permissible! Bring your donated items or send items by February 27 to Jean Zeithaml, 2536 E. Princeton Ave., Eau Claire, WI 54703.

Foundation Board Meeting

The Foundation Board of Directors held a meeting via telephone on November 21, 2016. Items of discussion were a review of the Foundation Bylaws, including clarification of 501(c)(3) status, and investment recommendations for Foundation funds.

Recent Donations

Once again, the Foundation is especially appreciative of a generous donation from an Anonymous Donor who took advantage of the IRA Charitable Rollover legislation which allows a donation to be made directly from an IRA to a non-profit organization without having the distribution count as taxable income.

Thanks to Marilyn Swiontek for her recent donation and to Susan Turgeson for her donation in honor of her mentors and leaders in Family and Consumer Sciences, Carolyn Barnhart and Cindy Quilling. Thanks, also, to Carolyn Barnhart for her donation in memory of Jean Zeithaml's mother, Adeline Crownhart.

WAFCS Regions in the Rearview Mirror

Esther Fahm, PhD, RD/RN, CFCS

Vice President for Professional Development

One of this year's priorities is to revisit how the Regions can better serve the professional development needs of its members. At the 2017 Annual Conference, the Friday luncheon session will include a Great Conversation on this topic. This Conversation will seek your input on what makes professional development effective within WAFCS' six Regions in the state. What is the role of regional meetings in the future? Might alternatives such as social media, web/online sessions or other formats be a more viable way for meeting the professional development needs of today's and tomorrow's professionals? We invite you to join this Great Conversation and share your ideas on these and other questions for enhancing the effectiveness of the Regions in meeting your professional development needs.

Historically, regional meetings have been the chief way of offering professional development opportunities in various locations within the state. These meetings, typically held in the fall of year, along with the state-wide Annual Conference have made regular, high-quality professional development offerings accessible to WAFCS members. Over many years, regional meetings have gradually discontinued, leaving a gap in WAFCS' capacity to fulfill its professional development objectives.

This year, we aim to identify information-driven approaches for enhancing the Regions' role in professional development in the future. In addition to the Great Conversation at the Annual Conference, we plan to conduct an online survey to gather input from WAFCS members and other family and consumer sciences professionals. Findings and recommendations will be disseminated to the WAFCS Board and membership for planning and decision-making purposes.

We need your participation in this process of re-looking at the past and mapping a path for the future. Your ideas are crucial to creating plans and approaches for WAFCS to best serve the professional development needs of its members going forward.

Feeding America Experience - Pre Conference Activity

Feeding America is a food bank that works with a network of hunger relief partners to distribute more than 18.3 million meals a year to 377,000 people in eastern Wisconsin.

Project: You will be participating in a packaging, labeling, sorting or cleaning project from 1-4 p.m. on Thursday, March 2. This could range from labeling, and packaging canned goods to be shipped to food pantries, sorting meat products to provide meal programs with real protein for their members, or boxing up produce to send to homeless shelters to give their residents fresh produce. The operations staff will give you specific information about your task and assist you through your shift. Please note this volunteer activity takes place in a warehouse facility. For safety concerns, volunteers who are 10-16 years old must be accompanied by an adult for the duration of the volunteer activity. Volunteers under the age of 18 must have a liability waiver signed by a parent or guardian prior to their visit.

Dress: Volunteers will be working in our warehouse. We ask that you dress comfortably and wear closed-toe shoes. Depending on the volunteer activity, you may be asked to wear gloves and/or protective hair/beard net. All jewelry including watches, must be removed when entering the facility (wedding bands are allowed). Bringing a jacket or sweatshirt is recommended as the temperature may vary within the warehouse.

Registration: Please note that on the conference registration form there is a place for your name and email address. Anyone who plans to go, must provide this information for us to send to Feeding America.

Leaving for Feeding America: We will meet in the hotel lobby at 12:30 p.m. to fill out the required forms and arrange for transportation. You will be asked to sign a Photograph/Media Consent Release and Volunteer Liability Wavier before leaving the hotel. We will be carpooling to go to Feeding America, so please think about being a driver. Directions to get to Feeding America will be provided at that time.

Time to Get Certified! Testing offered at WAFCS Conference

Since 1987, the American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences (AAFCS) has administered the Professional Assessment and Certification program, which measures competencies of professionals and awards certifications to those who pass assessments and meet other requirements. Whether you are a new professional or seasoned veteran, validate your professional expertise through the AAFCS competency examination system. These national competency exams also meet a major requirement for obtaining corresponding professional certifications. At the state conference, you can sit for one of five exams, each corresponding to one of the five certifications:

- CFCS: Certified in Family and Consumer Sciences
- CFCS-HDFS: Certified in Human Development and Family Studies
- CFCS-HNFS: Certified in Hospitality, Nutrition, and Food Science
- CPFFE: Certified Personal and Family Finance Educator
- CNWE – Certified Nutrition and Wellness Educator

Click on each certification title above for more information about each of the assessments and certifications and to access assessment materials. The cost for paper-based testing (PBT) at the Affiliate conference is $95.00. Assessment administration will be on Thursday, March 2 from 6:00 pm. These exams are not listed on the conference registration form. To register online for paper-based testing (PBT) at the state conference, please click here. Exam registration for this paper-based administration must be completed by February 7, 2017.

Note: The 2018 WAFCS Conference Co-Chairs are Cathy Lader, Barbara George and Julie Martin. We will be assembling our committee soon. If you are interested or have some ideas for program, please let us know. It will be held in Janesville the first weekend in March, 2018.

“Friend of FCCLA” Award by Julie Martin

Cathy Lader was nominated and awarded the “Friend of FCCLA” award for the 2015-2016 year. Cathy has been supporting the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) organization for many years. She was an FCCLA adviser and educator for 35 years and she also served as the DPI Family and Consumer Sciences/FCCLA consultant for 6 years. Cathy continues to be actively involved with FCCLA including, but not limited to: judging at State Conferences, assisting with Region 6 FCCLA responsibilities and chapter involvement, supporting and teaching current FCCLA advisers and promoting students competing in STAR events. Cathy was also the coordinator of a state wide WAFCS program supporting new professionals, Protégé Plus. Through this program Cathy has supported the advocacy events to encourage new educators in the FCS field. Cathy was a co-chair in starting a Family and Consumer Sciences conference in coordination with NASCO's Teacher Celebration day. She continues to encourage and support new, current and past FCCLA advisers to develop and enhance their advising skills and techniques. Not only has Cathy been implemental in all of these FCS programs, Cathy and her husband John Lader have initiated a program providing financial support to Region 6 chapters with Regional Representatives and/or State Officers. This is a very valuable resource to the student leaders in Region 6. This shows Cathy and her family's continued support for the FCCLA organization. Cathy Lader is a strong leader within FCCLA as she continues to support, assist and guide new FCCLA advisers through a variety of programming. She has been working with specific advisers to assist in understanding, promotion and organization of STAR event competitions. Cathy is truly a strong resource to the FCCLA adviser and FCS teacher community. All FCS educators that have the opportunity to speak with Cathy have the opportunity to learn something new each and every time! As you can see, Cathy Lader was a great representative as an award recipient of the “Friend of FCCLA” award based on her continuous love and support of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and Family and Consumer Sciences.
