In any section of this document referencing or quoting the AAHOA Bylaws, to the extent an inconsistency arises, the language of the ratified Bylaws shall supersede the language contained herein. This document shall be reviewed and updated following any change to the Bylaws. Policy 9.02 Volunteer Code of Conduct

All AAHOA volunteers are required to annually sign and adhere to the AAHOA Volunteer Code of Conduct.

Section X. Conflict of Interest

During their service, the AAHOA Directors and volunteers have access to sensitive business, strategic, and proprietary information about AAHOA, and such information is only to be used within the parameters of their activities with AAHOA.

Directors must adhere to professional, ethical, and legal standards requiring them to act objectively, honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests and on behalf of AAHOA. Certain outside activities may give rise to concerns and/or perceptions that the outside activity may (1) bias or influence the individual's decision-making regarding a program, policy, or activity under consideration by AAHOA, or (2) create an unfair competitive advantage for any individual person or outside organization (hereafter collectively referred to as "conflict of interest").

Therefore, the following shall apply with respect to AAHOA matters and real or perceived conflicts of interest.

AAHOA Directors are expected to exercise their best judgment to further and protect the interests of AAHOA and its members; this judgment must be exercised in light of AAHOA's mission, as well as the Director's experiences, perspectives, and expertise.

AAHOA Directors shall not at any time disclose to others or use for individual benefit or the benefit of others, any confidential or proprietary information owned, possessed, or used by AAHOA. The duty to disclose conflicts of interest is an ongoing one, and any new conflicts that arise should be reported promptly to the AAHOA President.

The AAHOA Conflict of Interest Disclosure shall be completed and signed by all AAHOA Directors, Ambassadors, committee and council members, and/or other volunteers at the beginning of service, annually, and shall be updated when the disclosures made change or new issues emerge. Any violation of this policy shall be cause for referral to the Ethics & Enforcement arbitration panel.

Section XI. Confidentiality

All Directors, committee or council members, and Ambassadors shall sign a Confidential Disclosure Agreement (CDA) at the beginning of his/her term and/or prior to participating in confidential deliberations. Failure to sign the CDA shall result in the individual being excluded from AAHOA communications relative to the individual's role and may result in removal.

AAHOA shall ensure all CDAs are properly executed and kept on file.

Section XII. Election Governing Protocol

AAHOA will ensure an impartial and unbiased election for all candidates with no candidate receiving unfair advantage during the campaigning process.

Each candidate shall receive relevant policy documents, sign a form acknowledging receipt, and agree to abide by AAHOA policies.

Candidates are required to complete a mandatory orientation program prior to the election at the annual convention. Current Board Members are exempt from this requirement.

During the Convention, candidates will at all times act in a professional manner befitting a person who is running for an open AAHOA Board or Officer position.

All candidates must be physically present at the election to be eligible.

Any infractions or failure to strictly adhere to AAHOA policies governing elections shall be grounds for discipline and/or disqualification of the candidate.

Upon learning of any potential or actual deviation from, or violation of, AAHOA policy by a candidate or a candidate's supporter, the candidate shall take immediate action to correct such deviation or violation. For any alleged or actual deviation, violation, or infraction of AAHOA policies governing elections, or failure to strictly adhere to the policies (individually or collectively referred to as "Violation"), for which a candidate promptly took action to correct and remedy such Violation, the Elections Committee may issue a warning as necessary and appropriate. If there is evidence to support a claim that the candidate's alleged or actual Violation was intentional or knowing, was a repeat of a Violation for which the candidate had previously received one or more prior warnings, or was significant and would likely impact the final election results, the candidate may be disqualified by action of the Elections Committee.

Any alleged Violation at the annual convention shall be reviewed, investigated, and ruled on by the Elections Committee. Any alleged Violation submission after the annual convention, and no later than 30 days after the end of the event, shall be submitted in accordance with the Ethics and Enforcement complaint submission guidelines.

The Elections Committee, in its sole and absolute discretion, shall be the final arbiter and ruling authority concerning any alleged or actual Violation. A candidate waives and releases any and all legal, ethical, or other related claims he/she might have or file against the Elections Committee, any member thereof, or any advisor or witness thereto.

The AAHOA policies governing elections apply to election candidates and any and all authorized and/or unauthorized supporters of the candidates. As it relates to these policies, references to the "candidate" include such supporters, and candidates shall be held fully responsible for the actions of such supporters.

Policy 12.02 Director and Officer Nominations

Nominations and elections for Board and Officer positions shall be conducted in an orderly, fair, and transparent manner and in compliance with AAHOA's governing documents.

Any nominee failing to submit the required candidate materials by established deadlines is ineligible to stand for election.

No nominations from the floor shall be allowed.

If no nominations are received by the nominations deadline for any open Board or Officer positions, such positions shall be considered vacant and shall be filled by the Board at the first meeting of the Board after the annual meeting in accordance with Article IV, Section 8 of the

Bylaws. Policy 12.03 Candidate Eligibility

To the extent possible, the Elections Committee shall verify the eligibility of all nominees. The Elections Committee shall certify the qualifications of each candidate no later than 21 days after the nomination deadline. If the qualification deadline lapses, the nominee is not certified.

The Elections Committee shall submit the certified slate of candidates to the AAHOA Officers. The Elections Committee shall inform the eligible candidate of his/her certification, and shall also provide the candidate the AAHOA policies governing elections, the Confidentiality Policy, the Conflict of Interest Policy, and the Qualifications for Members of the Board of Directors found in Article V of the Bylaws.

Two years prior to the day of the election, eligible Lifetime Members may notify the AAHOA President to transfer their memberships to a child who is at least 18 years old for the purpose of making a child eligible to run for an open Board seat.

(a) Officer Candidate Eligibility

In addition to meeting the eligibility requirements defined in Policy 12.03, all Officer candidates shall either be an elected, currently-serving Board member, or an outgoing Board member whose term expires on the day of elections.

Policy 12.04 Industry Partner Election

The President shall nominate no less than two Industry Partner candidates from Silver Member, Platinum Member, or Club Blue Member companies in good standing. A lodging industry franchisor representative is not eligible to serve in this position.

Currently serving Directors may take the podium within 60 days of the Convention at their own Regional or Town Hall events only to discuss AAHOA business and may not engage in self-promotion.

Other than posting a profile and photo on the website, at no point during the campaign is any candidate authorized to use, or make use of, any AAHOA resources to promote their candidacy or further their campaigns including, but not limited to, funds, materials, magazines, or the time of any staff members.

Candidates are prohibited from using their positions as a current Director, Ambassador, or recognized AAHOA leader to organize meetings, obtain podium time, or otherwise gain any unfair advantage in their bid for an open Officer or Board position.

For approximately four months prior to the election date, to the extent possible, the AAHOA staff shall avoid placing photos of any candidates in issues of the AAHOA magazine. Since the deadline for submitting an application to run for an open Board seat is not until 60 days prior to the election date, however, there might be times when the AAHOA staff is unaware that a candidate is or will be running for an open Board seat, and the AAHOA staff shall authorize that a photo of a candidate be included in an issue of the magazine before the candidate’s nomination form is submitted. Further, there might be limited or rare occasions when a particular candidate’s photo, either displaying the candidate individually or as part of a group, will be important or necessary to include in the magazine in connection with a story about AAHOA related business, and AAHOA reserves the right to include any candidate’s photo in the AAHOA magazine in its sole and absolute discretion.

(b) Member Database Access

The AAHOA Member Database shall not be accessible to Candidates and shall only be available to the AAHOA approved Mailing House for the purpose of mailing out “Authorized Election Collateral” (as defined below), or other related campaign or election materials, to AAHOA members. The approved Mailing House information is available from the AAHOA staff. Any material containing the use of the AAHOA logo or marks submitted to the Mailing House shall be subject to review and approval by the AAHOA staff prior to publishing and/or distribution.

If a candidate and/or a supporter obtains or receives a member database from any source including directly from the AAHOA staff, or for any reason other than campaigning purposes (i.e., to recruit members, or to invite members to attend a meeting or event), the candidate and/or the supporter will not use such member database for any campaign purposes. Convention attendee lists will not be provided to any candidate, supporter, or AAHOA member.

(c) Authorized Election Collateral

In the “Authorized Election Collateral,” candidates will set forth their specific goals and objectives for AAHOA if they are elected to a Board or Officer position.
