How to Get the Help You Need with SBA Loan Programs

FIND YOUR LOCAL SBA OFFICE
The SBA District Offices are responsible for the delivery of SBA’s programs and services. To identify and contact your district office, visit the SBA’s office finder and enter your business’s ZIP code. The SBA District Office will be easily identifiable at the top of the search list. Other local assistance resources also will be visible.

CONTACTING YOUR CONGRESSIONAL OFFICES
In-state offices are responsible for handling constituent services and case work. To save time, we recommend contacting the office closest to you or your business.

To get started, search your member’s name and visit their official government webpage ending in “.gov.” There will be easily identifiable links that direct you to a contact or constituent services landing page. Instructions and types of constituent services are generally included on each member’s webpage. “Help with a federal agency” is a common feature that we recommend trying first. Then, either fill out the assistance form or call the in-state office closest to you.

NEED TO IDENTIFY YOUR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS?
To find your Representatives, first follow this link and enter your ZIP code. If your ZIP code overlaps with multiple congressional districts, then you will need to enter an address. Next, click on the hyperlinked name underneath their photo to be redirected to their official webpage and follow the instructions above.

To find your Senators, first follow this link and select your state from the drop-down menu. Next, click “Contact” or the hyperlinked name above their photo to be redirected to their official webpage. Then, follow the instructions above.

AAHOA does not provide business or legal advice or representation to anyone. AAHOA goes to great lengths to ensure the information it provides is accurate and useful but strongly recommends that all members consult an outside lawyer and obtain professional advice and representation that is appropriate to his/her particular situation.

If you have questions or require assistance with the PPP, EIDL, or other SBA loan programs, we encourage you to contact your local SBA office and your members of Congress.
