Dear Colleagues:

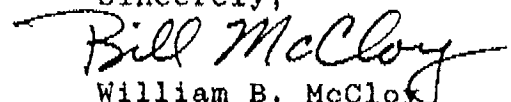

The 1990 meeting of the Asian American Law Librarians Group will be held on Monday, June 18th, from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. in room 212B of the Convention Center in Minneapolis. We are extremely fortunate that Prof. Bob Berring has consented to address our group. As you undoubtedly know, Prof. Berring is an expert in the field of Chinese law, director of the Boalt Hall School of Law Library at UC-Berkeley, and former president of AALL.

Following Prof. Berring's presentation, we will have a short business meeting and election of new officers for the coming year.

At the 1989 meeting in Reno, about 20 of us went out to dinner together at a local Chinese restaurant. We had such a good time that we hope to be able to repeat the experience in Minneapolis.

Please plan to join us for what should prove to be a most interesting meeting. And bring your friends and colleagues as well. See you soon!

Sincerely,

William B. McCloy
Chair, Asian American
Law Librarians Group
