Dear Professor Mills:

On behalf of the Asian-American Law Librarians Group we would like to thank you for providing a meeting room for our group during the Academic Libraries SIS reception in your library. As most of our group's membership comes from academic law libraries, the site was appropriate and the hospitality much appreciated. Please convey our thanks as well to Cindy Wang and Sharon Scott for their role in making us feel welcome.

In case you are not familiar with our fairly new group, allow me to share with you our purpose, which was formalized at the Emory meeting:

"The object of the Group shall be 1) to enhance communication among Asian-American law librarians and between Asian-American law librarians and other librarians, especially law librarians; and 2) to provide a forum for the exchange and promotion of ideas and information among all librarians interested in Asian legal materials."

Please bring our Group to the attention of any individuals you think may be interested. Our next meeting will be at the Reno conference.

Again, thanks.

Sincerely,
