Meeting Called to Order by Gretchen Van Dam

1. Chair's Report
   a. AALL has approached Caucus about offering a webinar on Researching Tribal Law. This is part of AALL’s initiative to help smaller caucuses cooperatively work to support programming of interest to the caucus members as well as AALL membership. Grechen Van Dam will be working with AALL to coordinate the effort, which was supported by the group.
   b. Grechen Van Dam would like to see the caucus community page offer additional information that could serve as a resource for other AALL members. Several attendees volunteered to develop links to be posted on the NPLC site.
   c. Thanks to Anne Lucke for her work on the NPLC Newsletter and to others for contributing material.

2. Richard Amelung spoke about the LLMC resources, including legacy collections such as the Lolly Gasaway bibliography. He also spoke about the early state and Indian territory materials.

3. Darla Jackson spoke about efforts in Oklahoma to form a cooperative agreement between Oklahoma Indian Legal Services and Fastcase to make Oklahoma-based tribal court dockets and opinions available and searchable.

4. Proposals for programs for the 2019 AALL Annual Meeting were discussed. Because the Annual Meeting is in Washington D.C., it was suggested that a program with a speaker from the National Museum of the American Indian might be possible.

Meeting adjourned at approximately 1:15pm.
