

Join the Premier Association for Marriage and Family Therapists

The American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy is the largest organization dedicated solely to systemic relational therapy. Joining AAMFT makes you part of a unified voice for all marriage and family therapists (MFTs) and provides tailored benefits around your interests, advocacy efforts to secure the future of the profession, and access to resources and professional training for all levels.

No application fee
Save $25
USE CODE: 2018NYAMFT

Engagement Programs

- Member-driven based on topical interests and locality
- Both free and opt-in engagement programs available
- Tailored membership to meet the changing needs in your career journey

Free Legal and Ethics Consultations

- Guidance on applying the AAMFT Code of Ethics to your professional activities
- AAMFT staff consultation about legal matters relating to your practice

Advocacy

- Protection and advancement for your right to work at the state, provincial, and federal levels

Networking & Education

- In-person continuing education and networking events
- Active online communities
- Online training and videoconference programs
- Early career development programs

Leadership Development

- Dedicated leadership development programs and events designed for MFTs

And many more benefits

- Free student liability insurance
- Discounted MFT-exclusive products and services for your practice

“ We believe that AAMFT is most strongly positioned for the future when we respect you as your own best decision maker and offer you options in membership structure that reflect that by allowing you to customize your own experience.” – Michael Chafin, Past President

Start your journey with AAMFT today

aamft.org/join or call 703-838-9808

Some benefits vary based on the membership category you qualify for.

