

Community Code of Conduct: Rules, Etiquette, and Privacy Guidelines

Thank you for being part of our community. To ensure the best possible experience for all members, we have established some basic guidelines for participation.

By joining and using this community, you agree that you have read and will follow these rules and guidelines. You also agree to reserve discussions, shared files, and content to topics best suited to the community. This is a great location with which to solicit the advice of your peers, benefit from their experience, and participate in an ongoing conversation. Technical questions on how to use the community or adjust settings should be directed to the member services department.

Please take a moment to acquaint yourself with these important guidelines. If you have questions, please contact us at membership@aapacn.org. In order to preserve a climate that encourages both civil and fruitful dialogue, we reserve the right to suspend or terminate membership in this community for anyone who violates these rules.

The Rules

- Don't challenge or attack others. The discussions and comments are meant to stimulate conversation not to create contention. Let others have their say, just as you may, and show respect and professionalism to others.
- Don't post commercial messages on any discussion list, resource library entry, or other area where others might see it.
- Use caution when discussing products. Information posted on the lists and in the libraries is available for all members to see, and comments are subject to libel, slander, and antitrust laws.
- All defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal materials are strictly prohibited. Do not post anything that you would not want the world to see or that you would not want anyone to know came from you.
- Please note carefully all items listed in the disclaimer and legal rules below, particularly regarding the copyright ownership of information posted.
- Remember that other participants have the right to reproduce postings to this site unless you specify otherwise.
- Post your message or documents only to the most appropriate discussion groups or libraries. Do not spam several discussion groups or libraries with the same message.
- All messages must add to the body of knowledge. We reserve the right to reject any message for any reason.

Discussion Group Etiquette

- Include a signature tag on all messages. Include your name, affiliation, location.
- State concisely and clearly the topic of your comments in the subject line. This allows members to respond more appropriately to your posting and makes it easier for members to search the archives by subject.
- Include only the relevant portions of the original message in your reply. Delete any header information and put your response before the original posting.

- Send messages such as "thanks for the information" or "me, too" to individuals--not to the entire list. Do this by using the "Reply to Sender" link to the left of every message.
- Do not send administrative messages, such as remove me from the list or email issues. Instead, change your settings to remove yourself from a list. If you are changing e-mail addresses, you do not need to remove yourself from the list and rejoin under your new e-mail address. Simply change your settings from your community profile page.

The Legal Stuff

This site is provided as a service for the members of the American Association of Post-Acute Care Nursing (AAPACN). AAPACN is not responsible for the opinions and information posted on this site by others. We disclaim all warranties with regard to information posted on this site, whether posted by AAPACN or any third party; this disclaimer includes all implied warranties of merchantability and fitness. In no event shall AAPACN be liable for any special, indirect, or consequential damages or any damages whatsoever resulting from loss of use, data, or profits, arising out of or in connection with the use or performance of any information posted on this site.

In addition, the posting party grants AAPACN and users of this site the nonexclusive right and license to display, copy, publish, distribute, transmit, print, and use such information or other material.

Messages should not be posted if they encourage or facilitate members to arrive at any agreement that either expressly or impliedly leads to price fixing, a boycott of another's business, or other conduct intended to illegally restrict free trade. Messages that encourage or facilitate an agreement about the following subjects are inappropriate: prices, discounts, or terms or conditions of sale; salaries; profits, profit margins, or cost data; market shares, sales territories, or markets; allocation of customers or territories; or selection, rejection, or termination of customers or suppliers.

AAPACN does not actively monitor the site for inappropriate postings and does not on its own undertake editorial control of postings. However, in the event that any inappropriate posting is brought to the attention of AAPACN, appropriate action will be taken.

AAPACN reserves the right to terminate access to any user who does not abide by these guidelines.

Violation of the Code of Conduct

We will investigate any complaints of possible policy violations that come to our attention and take any action that we believe is appropriate, including, but not limited to issuing warnings, removing content, and terminating accounts and/or subscriptions. However, because situations and interpretations vary, we also reserve the right to take no action.

If you see what you believe is inappropriate content in the discussion forums, resource libraries, or member profiles, notify AAPACN immediately by emailing us at: membership@AAPACN.org.

If you believe that any materials published in the Community infringe the copyrights of others, please notify us by emailing membership@aapacn.org.

We will adhere to the following "Three Strikes" Policy outlining consequences for participants who violate the Code of Conduct:

1. Upon the first violation, the participant will receive a written warning from an AAPACN staff member.
2. A second violation will result in a three-month suspension from the AAPACN Connect community.
3. A third violation will result in immediate and permanent suspension of all AAPACN Connect privileges.
