Section 2: Applicant Information

Question 1:

Summarize your significant individual contributions on the national or international level or describe a state or regional impact demonstrating potential for national impact (consider this section to be similar to an abstract of the work you will describe in Question 2).

Please refer to the specific guidance for your area of service, practice, advocacy, policy, or research.

- a. Based on the above, summarize the primary area(s) of impact: service, practice, advocacy, policy, or research.

Response CANNOT exceed 100 words

- b. Describe the context in which your impact occurs. If you are not working in a traditional role or setting, please be sure to clarify for the reviewers the role that you have in that setting as applicable to this application.

Response CANNOT exceed 200 words.

Applicant Name:

Question 2:

Briefly describe your substantive, sustained, and outstanding impact of your contribution that is the focus for this application (for state or regional contributions, please identify the potential impact of your work beyond the state or regional level). In addition, include your potential for significant continuing contributions in this area to health or health care through nursing. Be as specific as possible providing data to support the impact of your work.

Ensure that the events listed in your CV align with the description provided.

*Response CANNOT exceed 600 words. Your application will be disqualified if this word limit is exceeded
