

Associate Dean for Research - Indiana University School of Nursing

Indiana University School of Nursing is pleased to announce the search for the Associate Dean for Research (ADR). The ADR oversees all new strategic initiatives, academic program development, fundraising activities, and serves as the liaison to external funding sources for research. The successful candidate will be responsible for creating an atmosphere that builds faculty engagement and supports collaborative research and scholarship teams across the academic divisions of the university. The ADR supports and mentors the development of faculty scholarship and provides an ongoing analysis of the school's grant portfolio, research agenda, scholarly activities, and external reputation.

The successful candidate must have a PhD in nursing or a related field with at least five years of academic experience at the rank of a tenured Associate or Full Professor. The candidate must have evidence of professional leadership and progressive leadership responsibilities and a demonstrated record of externally funded grants and peer reviewed publications in high impact journals. The candidate should also show demonstrated experience in growing a research program.

Indiana University School of Nursing forms a core campus with locations on the Indianapolis (IUPUI), Bloomington, and Fort Wayne Campuses and offers a full range of programs from undergraduate to doctoral. Robust clinical and academic partnerships through Indiana University and the state of Indiana provide support and new opportunities for interdisciplinary research and discovery.

As the state's premier urban research institution, IUPUI is committed to being a welcoming campus community that reflects and enacts the values of diversity, equity, and inclusion that inform academic excellence. We seek candidates who will not only enhance our representational diversity but whose research, teaching and community engagement efforts contribute to diverse, equitable, and inclusive learning and working environments for our students, staff, and faculty. IUPUI condemns racism in all its forms and has taken an anti-racist stance that moves beyond mere statements to interrogating its policies, procedures, and practices. We hope to identify individuals who will assist in our mission to dismantle racism so that everyone has the opportunity to succeed at IUPUI.

Applications received by September 30, 2021, will be given priority. Letters of application with curriculum vitae and names, addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses of a minimum of seven references must be submitted online to: <https://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/11080>.

A copy of the position description is available upon request. For more information, please contact Dr. Claire Draucker, chair of the search committee at (317) 274-4139 or e-mail cdraucke@iu.edu or William Weiss, HR Business Partner at wweiss@iu.edu or at (317) 274-3796.

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status. Indiana University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, including employment and admission, as required by Title IX. Questions or complaints regarding Title IX may be referred to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights or the university Title IX Coordinator. See Indiana University's Notice of Non-Discrimination here which includes contact information.