University of Wisconsin-Madison, School of Nursing
Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs & Associate or Full Professor

Academic Career & Executive Search is pleased to assist the University of Wisconsin-Madison in its search for an Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs at either an Associate or Full Professor rank.

This is a rare opportunity for a collaborative, energetic leader to have a profound impact at an exceptionally successful and growing R1 School of Nursing. The Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs (ADFAs) serves as a member of the Dean’s Executive Leadership Team, which is responsible for the development and implementation of the School’s strategic direction. The successful candidate works with executive leaders and all areas of the school to coordinate faculty recruitment, retention, promotion, review, and development across the school. The ADFAs is responsible for providing overall leadership and oversight for matters related to faculty development, including the establishing of programs, policies, and processes that support faculty in their academic roles as educators, researchers, and translators.

This position is required to have a concurrent faculty appointment at a tenured professorial rank (Associate Professor or Professor). The Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs (ADFAs) reports to the Dean of the School of Nursing (SoN).
