Tener Goodwin Veenema, PhD, MPH, MS, RN, FAAN

Tener Goodwin Veenema, PhD, MPH, MS, RN, FAAN, was selected by the Academy to be the 2017–2018 Distinguished Nurse Scholar-in-Residence at the National Academy of Medicine (NAM). The program, initiated in 1992, provides a yearlong leadership opportunity to participate in shaping health policy.

Dr. Veenema is currently Associate Professor of Nursing and Public Health at the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing and the Center for Humanitarian Health at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health.

Dr. Veenema, who was inducted into the American Academy of Nursing in 2009, will use her time as a NAM Distinguished Nurse Scholar to expand her leadership experience in advancing national preparedness and interprofessional workforce readiness in public health emergencies.
