ASK THE EXPERTS HIGHLIGHTING YOUR RESEARCH

Members from the AAPS Editorial Content Committee will be on hand to answer questions during the “Ask Me Anything About Highlighting Your Research,” January 8, 11am-12pm ET, about how to submit your scientific insights for consideration in the AAPS Newsmagazine.

The Editorial Content Committee, representing a wide breadth of scientific backgrounds and career stages, assists in sourcing and reviewing relevant scientific, technical, industry, and business content submitted for AAPS Newsmagazine.

AAPS Newsmagazine helps pharmaceutical scientists by providing scientific features, news, career development articles, member recognition, AAPS resources, and other information.
