AAPS Introduces 2018 Slate of Candidates

ARLINGTON, VA. (June 1, 2018) – The slate of candidates for the upcoming American Association of Pharmaceutical Scientists (AAPS) Board of Directors has been announced. Open nominations were accepted through the AAPS website, emails to membership, and the AAPS Newsmagazine earlier this year. Elections will be held in June/July and the new slate will begin serving in November at the AAPS PharmSci 360 meeting in Washington, DC.

The AAPS Nominations Committee carefully considered the knowledge, skill sets and attitudes necessary to lead AAPS in advancing the organization’s mission to advance the capacity of pharmaceutical scientists to develop products and therapies that improve global health.

“AAPS is fortunate to have these outstanding leaders committed to serving the organization and fellow pharmaceutical scientists,” said Walter T. Marlowe, AAPS Executive Director. “They bring the expertise, industry knowledge, and business acumen needed to take AAPS to the next level.”

Visit www.aaps.org for details. The voting deadline is July 31, 2018 and results will be announced in August.
