About ACP

About the Alliance of Comprehensive Planners (ACP)

The Alliance of Comprehensive Planners (ACP) is a national professional association dedicated to advancing the practice of comprehensive planning. ACP supports planners who are committed to high professional standards, ethical practice, and collaborative, community-centered approaches to planning. Through education, networking, and shared resources, ACP fosters a strong professional community that promotes thoughtful, inclusive, and sustainable planning across disciplines and regions.

About the ACP Annual Conference

The ACP Annual Conference brings together planning professionals, allied partners, and industry leaders for three days of education, connection, and collaboration. The conference features expert-led sessions, timely discussions on emerging planning issues, and opportunities to exchange ideas with peers from across the country. For sponsors, the Annual Conference offers direct access to engaged decision-makers and practitioners, providing valuable visibility and meaningful opportunities to build relationships within the comprehensive planning community.
