

People Helping People Build a Safer World®

Exclusive Offer to ACCA Members

Through a special agreement between ACCA and the International Code Council (ICC), ACCA Members may apply for a free customized membership to the Code Council*.

No other building code association offers you more I-Code resources to help enhance your code knowledge and your career than the International Code Council. Become part of a network of like-minded building safety professionals.

Take Advantage of These Code Council Benefits:

- Discounts on ICC certification renewals
- Instant download and print on-demand ICC Membership and Certification certificates
- Best pricing on I-Code resources and online training
- Free access to ICC's online Career Center
- Discounts up to 25% off code publications
- Opportunities to participate in member councils, committees and more

ACCA members are eligible to receive these benefits, just download, complete and submit this simple application.

The International Code Council provides a wide range of building safety solutions including product evaluation, accreditation, certification, codification and training. ICC develops model codes and standards used worldwide to construct safe, sustainable, affordable and resilient structures.
